Part-time Finance Manager

Dynamic event organization is looking for a financial practitioner and strategist

Copenhagen 2021 is the joint celebration of EuroGames and WorldPride and is set to be one of the biggest events ever held in Copenhagen. Copenhagen 2021 exists out of four intertwined pillars focusing on Human Rights, Sports, Pride and Culture. We are looking for a part-time finance manager to join our team for practical task such as bookkeeping and budget follow-ups, as well as working strategically with the management to present the board and decision-makers with budget forecasts and to ongoingly qualify budgets internally.

The executive managements closest sparring

As our new Finance Manager, you will become an integral part of the management and work closely with the chair, vice chair and operations manager to ensure a strong financial steering of the project. The tasks are broad-spectrum and include, among other things, finance and accounting, budget preparation and reporting, invoicing, follow-ups, statements, etc. Therefore, we are looking for a profile who have a strong strategic overview and who induce a calm and competent approach, as-well as a profile who can be hands-on with bookkeeping tasks and follow-ups.

It is a time limited position of approximately 16-20 hours a week, and we expect the workload to increase close to the events execution in august and some flexibility is hence expected.
